

Students have RIGHTS. At the same time, and equally as important, they have RESPONSIBILITIES. In addition, they are expected to RESPECT themselves, others and the environment. If students fail to act responsibly and show a lack of respect, members of staff have the right to apply appropriate sanctions.

RIGHTS

Students have the right to:

-  high quality teaching;
-  be encouraged to do their best;
-  a caring, supportive and disciplined learning environment;
-  a range of extra-curricular activities and the encouragement to participate.

RESPONSIBILITIES

Students are expected to:

-  make it as easy as possible for everyone to learn and for the teacher to teach;
-  join in, aim high, and try hard;
-  if in doubt, ask questions;
-  do homework and hand it in on time;
-  bring the right equipment and clothing to each lesson;
-  be on time for lessons;
-  wear college uniform;
-  eat in the dining room, garden or picnic area - never in a classroom, corridor or on the field;
-  put litter in a bin.

RESPECT

Means students should:

-  praise themselves when they do well and praise others when they are successful;
-  appreciate the feelings of others and act sensitively;
-  never humiliate others verbally or physically;
-  never bring hazardous objects or substances to college;
-  take care of their own property and value that of others.
